

Waiting.....

Chapter 1 by Writer's Block

I look expectantly at the bar where the time is displayed and frown. It's been only a few minutes, but to me it seems like eternity.

I bite my lip. I've bit it too hard and some blood flows out, but I don't care. When you're waiting for something as expectantly as I am, nothing matters to you - including physical pain. It's the mental torture of waiting that I can't bear.

Why does it take so long? It shouldn't take so long. It normally takes a maximum of a minute - why isn't this ending? It should end by now. The noise is irritating and I can't bear it any more.

Finally it pops up, I sigh a sigh of relief, click the 'Skip Ad' button in YouTube and watch the cat video in relief.
